In attendance; Ben Carl, Kim, Terri, Veid, Mark, Bernice, Tim, Dwight, Robert, Karen, and Steve

Veid called the meeting to order.

Mark gave the commissioners report. He reviewed his handout on the scoring for Journey and training records. He reports 21 of 32 units will reach some level of Journey. The deadline is December 15th, Discussion was held.

Karen reported there were no changes offered to last month's minutes. Dwight moved to have them approved, Tim seconded and they were approved unanimously.

Activities;

Robert reported that the weather is finally cooperating for the Ice Fishing Derby to be held on Jan 27 at Simley pond. Registration will be held at 9 and the derby from 9:30 – 1. He is trying to get Ace Hardware to donate bait and local businesses to donate prizes. He has 3 augers and needs loan of more. Dave savoy has completed the logo and the patch is to be ordered.

Mark reported for Ft Snelling. The event is posted on the Kaposia site and the O/A site, Flyers are done.

Mark reported that Heritage School has been reserved and Robert reported he was already working on counselors for the event. Mark asked to have a flyer for next week's roundtable with any merit badges confirmed. It will be held on Feb 24th.

Bernice reported for membership, we are only 28 youth away from goal. We have until early January to meet goal.

She then reported that the FOS breakfasts are this week Wednesday and Thursday. We have a table on Thursday at Ft Snelling. All are welcome to attend either day. She had a few FOS packets that still need to get to units. Those not picked up tonight she would bring to Roundtable.

Steve reported he is now available on Tuesdays for meetings. He had good response on topics for Roundtable and those topics will start in January. For the December roundtable / party he has a presentation on last minute shopping ideas. Discussion was held with a focus on STEM and the new internet advancement – Scout Book

He then reported that we have our Silver Beaver nomination. Dwight is working on letters of recommendation.

Veid returned to the discussion on next week's holiday party. Spouses are welcome. Part of the Council award funds will be used to provide cheese, sausage and buns. Dwight to secure these. Terri will bring coffee, lemonade, napkins, silverware, and plates, Bernice will bring sparkling sider. Ben will bring music, player and speakers. Dwight to check with Larry about caroling books and let Mark know if Larry no longer has any. Dwight to get the flyer to Ben to send out.

Veid suggested the remaining funds be used to offset the cost of the awards banquet.

Bernice brought up girls in scouting, she suggested promoting it to troops to get them ready. Packs will be having girls registered soon. Discussion was held including the fact that most staff at national have never been to camp or even a Den meeting.

Veid adjourned the meeting.
